Statement of intent

Moor Row Primary School believes that all governors must receive a comprehensive induction package in order to successfully fulfil their role. This policy ensures that new governors are provided with the support and information necessary to give a thorough understanding of their role as a school governor.

Through this policy, we aim to ensure that every new governor:

- Is welcomed by the school and governing board.
- Is provided with the necessary tools and information to begin their governance role as early as possible.
- Visits the school to gain contextual information.
- Meets the headteacher, governing board, staff and pupils.
- Understands the role of the governing board and its committees.
- Understands their role and responsibilities, and their accountabilities.
- Understands their training needs and requirements, particularly in relation to the DfE's competency framework.
- Is provided with a comprehensive induction pack.
- Is presented with the opportunity to ask questions.

1. Legal framework

- 1.1. This policy has due regard to legislation including, but not limited to, the following:
  - The School Governance (Roles, Procedures and Allowances) (England) Regulations 2013
- 1.2. This policy also pays due regard to the following guidance documents:
  - DfE (2017) 'A Competency Framework for Governance'
  - DfE (2019) 'Governance handbook'
  - DfE (2021) 'Keeping children safe in education'
- 1.3. This policy will be implemented in conjunction with the following school policies:
  - Governors' Allowance Policy
  - Governor Visit Policy
  - DBS Policy
  - Conflicts of Interest Policy

2. Prior to appointment

- 2.1. Prospective governors will be invited to talk to either the headteacher or Chair of Governors about the role of a school Governor.
- 2.2. When possible, the new governor will be taken on an introductory tour of the school and will be provided with contextual information such as specific issues currently facing the school.

3. DBS and eligibility

- 3.1. New governors will be provided with a copy of the school's DBS Policy.
- 3.2. For a new governor who will have contact with children, the school office will ensure that an enhanced DBS (including a barred list) check is undertaken within 21 days of their appointment.
- 3.3. For a new governor who will not have contact with children, the school office will ensure that a DBS (without a barred list) check is undertaken within 21 days of their appointment.
- 3.4. New governors are subject to section 128 checks.

4. On appointment

- 4.1. Upon appointment to the governing board, the new governor will:
  - Be assigned a mentor from the existing governing board.

- Be asked to provide a suitable photograph for their school identification card.

4.2. The mentor will:

- Make contact with the new governor and welcome them on to the governing board.
- Arrange an informal meeting with the new governor to offer a chance to ask questions.
- Provide the new governor with a copy of the school's governor induction pack.
- Explain to the new governor:
  - How meetings of the governing board are conducted.
  - How to propose agenda items.
  - The role of each committee of the governing board.
  - Child protection arrangements and the governing board's role in safeguarding and child protection.
  - The school's response to children who go missing from education.
  - The identity and role of the DSL and any deputies.
  - The relationship between the governing board and the headteacher.
  - The actions to take if unable to attend a meeting of the governing board.
  - The importance of confidentiality, and the steps that must be taken to ensure it.
  - The layout of the buildings and grounds, their suitability, and their state of repair.

4.3. The induction pack will include the following:

- The DfE's 'A Competency Framework for Governance'
- The DfE's 'Governance handbook'
- A copy of 'Keeping children safe in education'
- The school prospectus
- A list of school staff and their responsibilities
- The SDP
- The school's latest Ofsted report
- Copies of the minutes from the most recent governing board meeting.
- A schedule containing details of upcoming governing board meetings
- Details of the governing board's committees and their associated remits

- The Governing Board Code of Conduct
  - A copy of the latest budget report
  - A copy of the latest headteacher report to governors
  - A copy of the school holiday schedule and events calendar
  - A guide to commonly used terminology and acronyms
- 4.4. The new governor will also receive copies of the following school policies:
- Child Protection and Safeguarding Policy
  - Staff Code of Conduct
  - Behavioural Policy
  - Governors' Allowance Policy
  - Governor Visit Policy
  - DBS Policy
  - Conflicts of Interest Policy
  - Complaints Procedure Policy
  - Whistleblowing Policy

5. Knowledge and skills audits

- 5.1. Within two weeks of appointment, new governors will complete a Governor Knowledge Audit Form, based on the DfE's competency framework, and return the completed form to the governor's clerk.
- 5.2. The clerk and chair of governors will use the completed form to inform the governor's training priorities and committee responsibilities.
- 5.3. Within eight weeks of appointment, new governors will complete a Governing Board Skills Audit Form, based on the DfE's competency framework, and return the completed form to the governor's clerk or chair of governors.
- 5.4. The governors clerk or chair of governors will use the completed form to inform the governing board's skill development priorities.

6. Business and pecuniary interests

- 6.1. Within one week of appointment, new governors will be asked to complete a Declaration of Business Interests form.
- 6.2. New governors are informed that conflicts of interest will be dealt with in line with the school's Conflicts of Interest Policy.

7. Expenses

- 7.1. Within one week of appointment, new governors will be provided with a copy of the Governors' Allowances Policy and accompanying forms, and provided with a detailed overview of the expenses process by the school admin.

8. Committees

- 8.1. Within four weeks of starting the role, the new governor will work with the chair of governors to identify suitable committee opportunities.

9. Introductory training

- 9.1. All new governors are required to attend introductory training sessions provided by the LA.

10. Induction completion

- 10.1. Every new governor will work through their New governor induction checklist, with help from their mentor where necessary.
- 10.2. Once the checklist has been completed, the induction period is deemed to have ended.

11. Policy review

- 11.1. This policy is reviewed every two years by the chair of the governing board and the headteacher.

The scheduled review date for this policy is September 2023

	Ensures that policy and practice align with the school's culture, values and ethos.
Decision-making	Identifies viable options and those most likely to achieve the school's goals and objectives.
	Puts aside vested or personal interests to make decisions that are in the best interests of all pupils.
	Acts with honesty, frankness and objectivity – taking decisions impartially, fairly and on merit, using the best evidence and without discrimination or bias.
	Brings integrity and considers a range of perspectives and diverse ways of thinking to challenge the status quo, rejects assumptions and takes nothing for granted.
	Identifies when to seek the advice of an independent clerk/governance professional for guidance on statutory and legal responsibilities and ethical aspects of the board's decision-making.
	Abides by the principle of collective decision-making and stands by the decisions of the board, even where their own view differs.
	Encourages transparency in decision-making and is willingly answerable.

Collaborative working	Is proactive in consulting, and responding to, the views of a wide group of stakeholders when planning and making decisions.
	Anticipates, prepares for and welcomes stakeholder questions, and ensures that these are answered in a relevant, appropriate and timely manner.
	Works in partnership with outside bodies where this will contribute to achieving the goals of the school.
	Uses clear language and messaging to communicate to parents and carers, pupils, staff and the local community.
	Is credible, open, honest and appropriate when communicating with stakeholders and partners, including providing clear and timely feedback on how their views have been taken into account.
	Considers the impact of the board's decisions and the effect they will have on the key stakeholder groups, and especially parents and carers and the local community.
	Acts as an ambassador for the school.
	Supports and challenges leaders to raise aspirations and community cohesion both within the wider community and with local employers.
Risk management	Is able to identify and prioritise the organisational and key risks, their impact and appropriate countermeasures, contingencies and risk owners.
	Ensures risk management and internal control systems are robust enough to enable the school to deliver its strategy in the short- and long-term.
	Advises on how risks should be managed or mitigated to reduce the likelihood or impact of the risk, and on how to achieve the right balance of risk without unduly impacting opportunities.

	Ensures the risk management and internal control systems are monitored and reviewed, and appropriate actions are taken.
	Actively avoids conflicts of interest or otherwise declares and manages them.
Educational improvement	Establishes clear expectations for executive leaders in relation to the process of educational improvement and intended outcomes.
	Defines the range and format of information and data they need in order to hold executive leaders to account.
	Seeks evidence from executive leaders to demonstrate the appropriateness and potential impact of proposed improvement initiatives.
	Questions leaders on how the in-school assessment system effectively supports the attainment and progress of all pupils, including those with SEND.
Data analysis	Analyses and interprets data in order to evaluate performance of groups of pupils.
	Analyses and interprets progression and destination data to understand where young people are moving on to after leaving the school.
	Uses published data to better understand which areas of school performance needs improvement and is able to identify any further data that is required.
	Questions leaders on whether they are collecting the right data, and using the appropriate evidence, to inform their assessment, and challenges appropriately when data collection is not adding value.
	Challenges senior leaders to ensure that the collection of assessment data is purposeful, efficient and valid.

Financial frameworks and accountability	Has a basic understanding of financial management in order to ensure the integrity of financial information received by the board and to establish robust financial controls.
	Has confidence in the arrangements for the provision of accurate and timely financial information, and the financial systems used to generate such information.
	Interprets budget monitoring information and communicates this clearly to others.
	Participates in the school's self-evaluation of activities relating to financial performance, efficiency and control.
	Is rigorous in their questioning in order to better understand whether enough is being done to drive financial efficiency and align budgets to priorities.
Financial management and monitoring	Possesses the knowledge to make decisions about allocating current and future funding.
	Interprets financial data and asks informed questions about income, expenditure, resource allocation and alignment with the strategic plan priorities.
Staffing and performance management	Ensures that the staffing and leadership structures are fit for purpose.
	Takes full responsibility for maintaining, updating and implementing a robust and considered pay policy.
	Feels confident in approving and applying the system for performance management of executive leaders.
	Identifies and considers the budgetary implication of pay decisions and considers these in the context of the spending plan.
	Pays due regard to ensuring that leaders and teachers are able to have a satisfactory work-life balance.

External accountability	Ensures appropriate structures, processes and professional development are in place to support the demands of internal and external scrutiny.
	Values the ownership that parents and carers and other stakeholders feel about 'their school' and ensures that the board makes itself accessible and answerable to them.
	Uses an understanding of relevant data and information to present verbal and written responses to external scrutiny.
Building an effective team	Demonstrates commitment to their role and to active participation in governance.
	Possesses the ability to acquire the basic knowledge that they need to be effective in their role.
	Uses active listening effectively to build a rapport and strong collaborative relationships.
	Welcomes constructive challenge and is respectful when challenging others.
	Provides timely feedback and is positive about receiving feedback in return.
	Seeks to resolve misunderstandings at the earliest stage in order to prevent conflict.
	Raises doubts and encourages the expression of differences of opinion.
	Is honest, reflective and self-critical about mistakes made and lessons learned.
	Influences others and builds consensus using persuasion and the clear presentation of their views.
Demonstrates professional ethics, values and sound judgement.
Roles and responsibilities	Is able to contribute to the design of governance and committee structures that are fit for purpose and appropriate to the scale and complexity of the school.

	Is able to adapt existing committee structures as necessary in light of learning/experience.
Statutory and contractual requirements	Is able to speak up when concerned about non-compliance where it has not been identified by the board or where they feel it is not being taken seriously.
	Can explain the board's legal responsibilities and accountabilities when called upon.
	Is able to identify when specialist advice, for example, legal advice, may be required.
